WARNING TO GERMANS

Advised Not to Go to the United States—Agitations Against Government Forbidden.

The Kaiser Wishes Bismarck Were Back—The Cabinet Crisis Still Continues.

BERLIN, May 9.—The Reichsanzeiger to-day publishes a long article warning Germans against emigrating to the United States, and giving extracts from the annual report of the German society of New York, referring to the increase of the number of immigrants from Italy, Russia, Poland, Ireland and Austria, with whom, the report adds, the educated German mechanics cannot compete because they are used to higher standards of living. In addition German immigrants with capital are cautioned against investing in land whose title, it is said, is often fraudulent or doubtful or the situation of which makes it unprofitable. Clerks, teachers, officers, scientists and female teachers especially are advised not to go to America, no matter how undesirable are the conditions at their homes.

The Emperor William has grown stouter lately, having gained fifteen pounds, while the Empress, who is just finishing the Schweninger Banting cure, is now much more slender and is rather pale. Her Majesty has greatly aged lately and her hair is quite gray.

A decree was issued this week reminding government officials of the order forbidding agitations hostile to the policy of the government. The issuing of this decree is due to the strong support which many officials, and especially in the Eastern provinces, have given to the agrarian candidates for the reichstag and diet.

Prince Bismarck, speaking to the members of a delegation from Bremen a few days ago said: "God had planted discontent in us as a spur, and we must renounce the belief that a general state of content will ever arise in this world either by Social Democracy or in any other way. It is impossible we should become nothing but idle dogs who would lie under palm trees and do nothing but eat the dates which fell into their mouths."

The cabinet crisis continues. The unbroken series of parliamentary failures which the various ministers are meeting with in the Reichstag as well as in the Diet have shown the Emperor that the cabinet will not be able to accomplish any legislation of importance owing to its total lack of influence over the delegates and the want of cohesion and solidarity among the ministers.

Some idea of the situation may be formed when it is known that the Emperor during the past week said to a confidant "It would be better for me to fetch the Old Man back again." By the "Old Man" His Majesty referred to Prince Bismarck.

The Emperor is still regretting the dismissal of Herr Koeller, the Prussian minister of the interior, whom he speaks of as being at least a capable man. It is probable that the members of the present cabinet will hold their positions until the fall, as the sessions of the Diet and Reichstag are drawing to a close and the Emperor has a well-filled programme for the summer, which will keep him from Berlin for months. In spite of this, it is borne in mind that His Majesty has expressed himself strongly to his entourage on the ability of the cabinet, and there is an impression in court circles that if the ministerial failures continue he may lose his patience and force the resignation of the whole cabinet.

DOWN ON THEIR LUCK.

British Aristocrats Who Have Played the Part of the Prodigal Son.

LONDON, May 9.—A receiving order has been issued against Earl Poulett, father of the notorious Viscount Hinton, who for years tried to shame the family into supporting him in idleness by playing a hand organ in the streets. When last reported in the newspapers about a year ago, the Viscount was acting as showman for a kinetoscope near Leather Lane, Holborn. He said that the organ-grinding had permanently crippled his right arm, and that he greatly preferred the occupation of showman. The title of Baron Poulett was created in 1627, when Sir John Poulett, an earnest Royalist, was created Baron Poulett, and the earldom was created in 1706. The Hinton family estate covers about 1,000 acres of ground, many treasures, including a £10,000 Vandyck, offered for sale at £6,000, the whole valued at £3,000,000. It is believed that proceedings will be taken to prevent the organ-grinder Viscount from inheriting the heirlooms.

Lord Durham sold his collieries from which he derived an income of about £70,000, to Sir James Jocey, a wealthy north country coal owner, who for years had been a gold mine for the Liberal party, and in whose interests he represents one of the divisions of Durham in the House of Commons. Sir James is also principal proprietor of the Newcastle Leader, and is said to have invested £60,000 in the paper. Some time ago he purchased the Ulgham estate from the Earl of Carlisle, the property consisting of an entire village and a number of farms. At the time of the purchase the transaction was pointed out as being another instance of the passing of the territorial possessions of feudal owners into the hands of wealthy men of business.

The Marquis of Donegal, "hereditary high admiral of Lough Neagh," is in the bankrupt court, with liabilities estimated at £519,000. His assets thus far are £122,000.

OUR OTTAWA SPECIAL.

Prospects of the Government in Nova Scotia Exceedingly Promising—Civil Service "Exams."

Earl Spencer a Guest at Government House—Capital Liberals Choose a Candidate.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

OTTAWA, May 9.—Sir C. H. Tupper arrived to-day from Nova Scotia. He says the prospects in that province for the government are of the brightest description. The Liberals are not likely to secure more than two seats in that province.

Oil boring at Athabasca Landing will be continued for some time longer. A depth of 1,730 feet has already been reached.

Civil service promotion examinations will be held at all the centres commencing next week.

The Liberals in Ottawa city have secured William Hutchison, as their candidate.

Earl Spencer arrived here, and is the guest of Governor-General.

GREATEST IN THE WEST

The Winnipeg Demonstration the Most Successful Ever Held in That City.

The Premier Charmed With the Reception Accorded Him—An Augury of Success.

WINNIPEG, May 9.—(Special)—The Conservatives are enthusiastic over the success of the mass meeting held here last night, addressed by Sir Charles Tupper and Hon. Hugh John Macdonald. It certainly was the greatest political meeting ever held in the West. The fact that over 20,000 words of the speeches were sent East by the Canadian Pacific Telegraph Company shows the great interest attached to the meeting in the Eastern provinces.

To-day Sir Charles held a public reception at the Hotel Leland, where he received a constant string of callers. In the afternoon he was presented with a large life-sized oil painting by his Manitoba admirers, and made a happy speech in reply. He also received a deputation from the Western Canada Immigration Association.

Col. Prior is here, and occupied a seat on the platform at the mass meeting last night.

Sir Charles Tupper goes East to-morrow and speaks in Montreal next Friday or Saturday.

A telegram from Dalton McCarthy states that he will be in Winnipeg to begin a series of meetings in Manitoba on May 25.

A Free Press reporter had a short interview with the Premier. "I have nothing to say," he said, "except that I am charmed beyond expression with the very warm reception accorded me here and the opportunity that has been presented to meet so many representative citizens of the Province and the Territories, and their assurances of success in the approaching contest makes me carry with me to the seat of government the firm conviction that the whole West will, as it has in the past, be unanimous in the support of the government that has done so much for it.

SALVATION ARMY.

Departure from San Francisco of Commander and Mrs. Booth-Tucker—Their Words of Farewell.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—Commander and Mrs. Booth-Tucker left this city last night, and are now on their way north to Portland. As the two stood in the waiting room of the ferry building at the foot of Market street, they jointly composed the following farewell:

"To the Salvationists of the Pacific Coast and to Our Friends: I gladly seize the opportunity of a few good-bye words.

"First—I would assure you, on behalf of the council and myself that our souls are full of appreciation for the warm and generous welcome that you have given us for our work's sake. Your sympathy, your assistance, and your kindness will long live in our memories. We go forward comforted with the conviction that you will stand by the principles and purposes of the Salvation Army in the future, as you have done in the past.

"Second—We are assured that a glorious future lies before you. No past accomplishment must satisfy you. No previous baptisms of love and power must content you. 'Greater things than these' are within the reach of the further faith and consecration and daring effort which you yet may exercise. My comrades, go forward, go faster, go deeper, to where the worst and most despairing and sorrowful await the coming of your feet, the sound of your voices and the message of hope and deliverance which you bring.

"Third—Let no storm stop you, or obstacles discourage you, no enemies daunt you. God is with you. The rising is His own. Its opportunity is the gift of heaven. Its work is sealed by the blessing of God. Shoulder the cross. Stand close by one another. Fear none. Love all. Hold fast. We shall meet again. We are with you in spirit. Your servants and leaders under the blood and fire flag for the salvation of America,

"EMMA AND FRED BOOTH-TUCKER."

AFRICAN TROUBLES.

Attitude of British Government Towards the Chartered Company Severely Criticized.

Matabele Camp Fires Visible From Buluwayo—Proposed Transvaal Reform Government.

LONDON, May 9.—The South African troubles are the talk of the hour, and every other subject seems to have almost disappeared for the present from popular attention. The announcement of the secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, that no commission of inquiry into the affairs of the British Chartered South African Company would be appointed until after Dr. Jameson's trial, which cannot be proceeded with for some time to come, as the hearing of the case was adjourned on April 28 until June 11, and that Cecil Rhodes, in the meantime, is to be allowed to retain his position as co-administrator of the company's territory and as a director of the organization, caused great disappointment among the Englishmen and others who have experienced a feeling of shame and humiliation at the recent developments at Pretoria.

Mr. Chamberlain, it is understood, yielded to the pressure brought to bear upon him, and it is clearly evident that the government has decided to shield Mr. Rhodes. Thus looming darkly in the distance is a scandal of Panama canal proportions, and one which may wreck the ministry even if it does not drag an empire in the mire.

Important weekly papers here like the Spectator, National Observer and the Saturday Review, protest against the government's leaning toward the Chartered Company after the latter's complicity in the Jameson raid has been established beyond the possibility of the faintest doubt. The Saturday Review, for instance, publishes six pages devoted to exposing the plot against the Transvaal, and as further evidence of the guilt of Cecil Rhodes, declares that President Kruger has proofs that Dr. Jameson, under Rhodes' orders, intended to march on Pretoria after the capture of Johannesburg should have overturned the government.

A despatch from Buluwayo, dated May 8, says Frederick C. Selous, the African explorer, accompanied by 120 men, has just arrived. Selous accompanied a column of troops which was despatched to meet the forces of Cecil Rhodes. The force of Col. Plumer, who is at the head of 150 men on horseback or with wagon, is expected to arrive soon. Sixteen camp fires of Matabele are visible from Buluwayo, but the movements of the enemy still remain an absolute mystery. Whether or not Cecil Rhodes is to resign from the directorate of the British Chartered South Africa Company is producing great excitement throughout this section. People here regard him as necessary to the progress of the country. They also think that the chances that the company will be able to make compensation for recent losses will be imperilled in the event of his resignation. A monster petition praying for his retention will be presented to the government.

The Berlin correspondent of the Daily News says: "The Neuste Nachrichten, which was marvellously well-informed as to the intentions of the Reform Transvaal government during the stay in Germany of Dr. W. J. Leydes, secretary of state of the Transvaal, states that President Kruger possesses a proclamation of the reform committee in which Charles Leonard signs himself as president and Lionel Phillips state secretary. John Hayes Hammond was to become attorney-general. The revolution failed because the Johannesburgers could not come to terms with Mr. Rhodes. The expression, "meeting of shareholders." in the cryptogram, referred to a meeting projected for January 5 to unfurl the British flag. Mr. Rhodes intended to do the whole thing under the British flag, because he was sure of sanction for his acts if he succeeded. He hoped to become president of a United States of South Africa."

Sir Hercules Robinson, governor of Cape Colony, will sail for England on May 20 for the purpose of discussing the South African situation with Mr. Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies.

It is learned at Cairo that the Khalifa is forcibly recruiting, and that he has sent 160 of his troops to suppress a rebellion in Kordofana. He also despatched reinforcements to Kassala.

It is reported that Peruvian election riots accompanied by considerable bloodshed have just occurred at Oruro la Paz and Sicasica. It is believed here that the Bolivian government is trying to force General Pando to the front.

The Italian chamber of deputies has by a vote of 278 to 133 passed a vote of confidence in the government. The chamber of deputies afterwards voted favorably upon the matter of supplementary credits for Africa.

The formation of an influential commission, headed by the Marquis of Lorne, to purchase the house of the late Lord Leighton, the deceased president of the Royal Academy, for £50,000, to be held in trust for the nation as a permanent residence for the president of the Royal Academy, is not received with general favor.

NEWS OF THE PROVINCE

Dissatisfaction With Mr. Maxwell's Candidature — Concluding Work of the B. C. Presbytery.

Wellington's Dominion Day Celebration—Methodist Church District Meeting—Mining Country.

(Special to the COLONIST.)

VANCOUVER.

VANCOUVER, May 19. — Last night eighteen delegates were elected from each ward to the Conservative convention to be held on Monday night to choose a representative for the coming election.

A. Goldstein received in his second-hand store a screwdriver that had been stolen from Mr. Lockhart, the undertaker. As the article was received without the precautions being taken according to a city by-law, Mr. Goldstein was fined $25 and obliged to forfeit the screwdriver.

The concluding work of the B.C. Presbyterian synod held here was as follows: Permission was given to ordain G. Vetter as German missionary at Calgary and to permit A. D. McKinnon and J. Taylor to preach in Cariboo. The Presbytery of Calgary will hereafter be divided into the Edmonton and Calgary presbyteries. The resolution that a lady missionary be appointed for work among the Chinese women and children in Victoria was rescinded, as the ground was already covered by the Methodist mission. The next synod will meet in St. Andrew's church, New Westminster.

Rev. James Buchanan, Presbyterian minister at Eburn, has resigned his charge.

The Rev. G. R. Maxwell has retired from the ministry, having definitely accepted the nomination of the Liberal party.

A meeting of the wing of the Liberal party which is dissatisfied with the nomination of G. R. Maxwell is taking place to-night to arrange, if possible, for a straight Liberal candidate.

WESTMINSTER.

WESTMINSTER, May 9.—Three companies of the Boys' Brigade from Vancouver acted as a guard of honor to the May Queen yesterday. The pageant was formed at 1 o'clock. The city band was followed by one company of young soldiers. Next came the retiring Queen Miss Dorothy Thompson and her maids of honor, then the Queen elect Miss Ella Cotton and her maids of honor, Miss Dora McBride and Miss Irene Trew. The carriages were profusely decorated with flowers and ribbons. Two companies of the Boys' Brigade followed; then carriages containing the Mayor and prominent citizens. The fire brigade came next, then private carriages of citizens. The "Royal" party were escorted to a raised platform at Queen's park. The retiring Queen made a very pretty and appropriate speech, finally commending her gallant young body guard to her successor. The reigning Queen followed with a prettily worded address to her subjects, when "God Save the Queen" was sung by all present. After Col. Scott had thanked the Vancouver contingent for their help, hearty cheers were given for the Queen and ex-Queen, and the May Day dance commenced. The dance in the evening was largely attended.

NANAIMO.

NANAIMO, May 9.—About 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning the large fan which supplies No. 1 and Protection Island shafts with air, broke down, so that the men had to be removed until the smaller fan kept in reserve could be put into operation. It will take some time to repair the damage, and in the meantime a good deal of inconvenience is caused, the small fan not being sufficient to keep every portion of Protection Island shaft free from smoke.

Thomas Dunn and D. McGillivray, of Vancouver, came over by the Cutch on Thursday evening, and drove out to Alberni to inspect the work on the Alberni Consolidated Mining Company's claims, in which they are largely interested. They will be back on Sunday.

At the Victoria district meeting of the Methodist church the usual review of ministerial character was the first business transacted, and proved perfectly satisfactory. Three probationers—S. Wilkinson, R. Wilkinson, and James Hicks—were continued, and the cases of R. J. Walker and James Hicks were referred to a special district meeting at Victoria. Rev. C. M. Tate was elected secretary, and Rev. Mr. Manuel assistant secretary for the district.

A letter received by J. Adams from his father, Robt. Adams, states that he and his party are now at Ashcroft and on the eve of departure for Quesnelle with 12 horses. One team has gone on ahead. There is quite a little rush for the Cassiar district, among those leaving at the same time as Mr. Adams being a number of Chinese with no less than 35 pack horses.

The people of Wellington will celebrate Dominion day, the sport to be arranged by the Athletic Gounds Association on the following basis: That the committee should turn over to them the surplus from last year, of $174. In return the Association guarantee to give $600 in prizes, exclusive of $150 annually given by Mr. James Dunsmuir. With this money in hand they would at once proceed to put the grounds in repair.

MIDWAY.

[From the Midway Advance.]

Both at Greenwood and Anaconda considerable building is going on.

W. Powers has staked out a mill site on Boundary creek.

Mr. Tate, a C.P.R. engineer, is again in the district.

John Christie has sunk a thirty-foot shaft on the Nightingale, with satisfactory results.

On the Mountain Lion the shaft is down ten feet.

P. King and T. Clark have located two iron caps. The claim on the British side the line is at Spraggett's ranch, near Carson.

Col. John Weir and Mr. Keefer, prominent mining men of the United States, are staying at Boundary Falls.

A fine body of galena has been found in the vicinity of Christina lake. Prospectors are flocking in there daily.

George Powell and his partner have a good thing in their claim on Kruger mountain.

D. A. Carmichael is carrying on development work on the Victoria, situated in Fairview camp.

Between three and five thousand men are prospecting on the Colville reservation.

After drifting 112 feet on the Gold Drop, a shaft is sunk some forty feet. The ore on the dump shows many fine specimens.

The acreage under crop this year at the Prairie is nearly double that of last.

Owing to the gradual thawing of snow and ice, the main trunk road to the west of Camp McKinney for about ten miles is extremely difficult to freight over.

Mr. DeGrey has bought a quarter interest in the Birdina, Camp Carson. He has also bonded the Double E, Bunch Grass and Lady Franklin lodes. Work is to commence at once on the Birdina. These properties are free-milling quartz propositions, and a stamp mill will be brought in, probably this summer.

Sixteen men have located a number of claims in the vicinity of Deadman's creek, on a co-operative plan. The showing on the creek is remarkable, and the locators are very hopeful.

The men working on the Volcanic have made a rich strike about 600 feet above the original tunnel. An immense ledge has been found with rock running from $60 to $70.

On Tuesday last Fairview received as visitors Mr. M. P. Morris, Chilean consul at Vancouver, and E. P. Stanley, mining engineer, of the same place. Mr. Morris, who represents old country capital, was desirous of making an investment in some of the properties in Fairview. The past week has seen Fairview thoroughly inundated with representatives of foreign capitalists, and there is every reason to believe that a deal has been arranged for the purchase of some properties here.

Mr. Powell, of Vancouver, and formerly of the Bank of Montreal, Vernon, in company with C. E. Costerton, of Vernon, paid Fairview camp a visit last week, and it is understood bonded the Morning Star claim.

The sale of the Skylark and Denver to the Lexington Mining Company, represented by Mr. Reuger, was consummated last Thursday. The Skylark belongs to the class of high-grade propositions. It was located on the 20th of July, 1893, by J. Atwood. Later on it was leased. The lease expired in February, 1894. The mine was then worked by the owners, and in spite of the expenses of shipment, the Skylark more than paid for development. The ore chute has been traced on the surface for 400 feet. It may be predicted that the Skylark will be worked for all it is worth.

KAMLOOPS.

(From the Inland Sentinel.)

Rev. Mr. Robson leaves on Monday to attend the provincial conference of the Methodist church at New Westminster.

Mr. James Blair returned the first part of the week from Adams lake, where he had taken a year's supply for three prospectors. He reports the season well advanced. Mr. Blair will leave on Monday next for Mosquito flat with a load of supplies for Messrs. Buchanan and Woods, who have eight or ten men working on a mineral claim.

FRANCIS MCKINNEY and Geo. Knowles have been transferred from the Old Men's Home here to the provincial home at Kamloops, and left yesterday morning for that place. McKinney, who is a Cariboo old-timer, is well known as "Old Larry," and is somewhat of a character. For a number of sessions Larry was a daily attendant at the debates in the local house, and his figure became so familiar to the public that he sometimes went by the name of "the thirty-fourth member."

HEART DISEASE STRIKES DOWN ALL CLASSES.

The Essential Matter is to be Prepared for any Emergency.

It is painful to pick up the daily papers and observe how people of all classes are being stricken down with heart disease and apoplexy. One day it is the farmer in the field, again the labourer carrying his hod or, as this week, a prominent architect in Ottawa. Perhaps it is not too strong a statement, that 80 per cent. of the people of Canada are afflicted with heart disease to some degree. What a blessing it is, then, that there exists a medicine like Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart which is so quick in producing relief. Instantly the patient obtains that ease that is so longed for when the heart is afflicted. There is absolutely no case of heart disease that it will not help, and with few exceptions, will produce a radical cure.

THE PRESENT SITUATION.

To the Editor:—Last night there was a good attendance at the theatre and the performance appeared to be much appreciated by the public. The singing of the ballad "Annie Lawrie" is suggestive of the present situation, as you will find below:

Macdonald's braes were bonnie
Where fell the mountain dew,
Before that any Laurier
Gave me his promise true,
Gave me his promise true,
Which ne'er forgot shall be;
And before we'll vote for Laurier,
We'll lay us doon to dee.

His platform is the snawdrift
And sinuous as the swan;
Though his words they are the fairest
The people ere caught on,
The people ere caught on;
Though not so green you see,
For before we'll vote for Laurier
We'll lay us doon to dee

Like dew in the heat of summer
Is his tariff for revenue,
And the winter winds will sigh before
It benefits me or you,
It benefits me or you,
As also you and me;
And I think you'll find that Laurier
Is very much at sea.

THE TRANSVAAL RAID.

Discussion in the Imperial House of Commons—Speeches of Sir William Harcourt and Mr. Chamberlain.

London, May 9.—During the speeches of Sir William Harcourt and Mr. Chamberlain in the House of Commons yesterday there was such a crowd of peers in the Commons that they were unable to obtain seats. The agent in London of the Transvaal, Mr. Montague White; Charles Leonard, a member of the reform committee who escaped from Johannesburg without trial, and Evan Smith, occupied the special gallery. It is long since parliament has been so animated or so crowded.

The Liberal leader, Sir William Harcourt, asked the government to make a statement regarding the raid into the Transvaal. He said the opposition had not unduly pressed the government on this important matter, but they thought the time had arrived for the house to be informed of the government's intention. Responsible directors of the Chartered South Africa Company at Capetown and Johannesburg were, he said, the authors of the raid, and Mr. Jameson was only a sub-lieutenant. The government was responsible for the actions of the Chartered Company before the nation and the world. (Applause from the opposition benches.) Harcourt analyzed the telegrams that passed between Cecil Rhodes, Colonel Rhodes, Rutherford Harris, Alfred Beit, Lionel Phillips, Dr. Jameson and others just before the invasion of the territory of the South African Republic. Later the opposition leader eulogized the promptness, decision and courage of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, Joseph Chamberlain, and dwelt upon the course of the Chartered Company, declaring it compromised Great Britain's reputation. Sir William said he did not believe that Cecil Rhodes was actuated by the desire of gain, but rather by greed of power. The speaker also remarked that he had noticed with regret the deterioration of the morals of the English press in dealing with the subject.

Mr. Chamberlain evidently felt the gravity of the position. His speech lacked its usual decisive ring, and the tones betrayed an appreciation of the delicacy and difficulty of his subject. Mr. Chamberlain, in the course of his speech, said that recent events reopened the whole great South African question, which had been the grave of many reputations. Sir William Harcourt, he added, had dealt with only one phase of the question. His speech was a powerful indictment not only of the Chartered Company, but of the prisoners at Pretoria and the men undergoing trial in England. He (Mr. Chamberlain) could not discuss that part of the affair. He could only say he believed that there was but one feeling in the house, namely, the sole object to secure the condemnation of the cryptogram policy. This could be obtained without any further discussion. There were many interests at stake, the developments being anxiously and carefully watched by foreign nations. Under these circumstances, in view also of the situation of the prisoners at Pretoria, there were many things which it was undesirable to mention at present, which might be said in the future. He added: "The object of our policy in South Africa is to preserve our position as paramount state; 2nd, to engender union and concord between the two races there. The recent raid jeopardised the first and delayed the second. The prosperity and happiness of South Africa are dependent upon the realization of the same state of things we attained in Canada, where two races less closely allied than the English and Dutch, work, fight and live side by side in perfect peace and good-will."

Mr. Chamberlain proceeded to point out the Transvaal's breaches of the convention with England, and said if it was a case of suspicion on one side, there was cause of suspicion on the other. In conclusion Mr. Chamberlain said it had been suggested that the government should issue an ultimatum to President Kruger. But such an ultimatum would certainly have been rejected, which would have led to war. Of course, he added, there might be contingencies in which a great power would have to face such an alternative. If some of those wild rumors attributed to President Kruger had designs to break the London convention and make an armed attack upon Natal had been true, we would then have been on the defensive, he pointed out that the government would not take military measures to force internal reforms in the Transvaal. Mr. Chamberlain denied that Governor Sir Hercules Robinson had been recalled from his post. He asserted that the latter hoped to return to South Africa to complete his work there, after conferring with the government.

OUR MAIL.

B.B.B. CURES

Our mail brings us every day dozens of letters about Burdock Blood Bitters. Some from merchants who want to buy it, some from people who want to know about it, and more from people who do know about it because they have tried it and been cured. One of them was from Mr. J. Gillan, B.A., 39 Gould Street, Toronto. Read how he writes:

Gentlemen,—During the winter of 1892 my blood became impure on account of the hearty food I ate in the cold weather. Ambition, energy and success forsook me, and all my efforts were in vain. My skin became yellow, my bowels became inactive, my liver was lumpy and hard, my eyes became inflamed, my appetite was gone, and the days and nights passed in unhappiness and restlessness

For some months I tried doctors' and patent medicines of every description, but received no benefit. Being advised by a friend to try B.B.B., I am glad to have the opportunity of testifying to the marvellous result. After using three bottles I felt much better, and when the fifth bottle was finished I enjoyed health in the greatest degree, and have done so from that day up to date. Therefore I have much pleasure in recommending B. B.B. to all poor suffering humanity who suffer from impure blood, which is the beginning and seat of all diseases.

J. Gillan, B.A., 39 Gould St., Toronto.

CASUALTIES IN CUBA.

Court Martial on the Men Captured on the "Competitor"—Movements of the "Bermuda."

Madrid, May 9.—According to the Spanish official figures, the Cuban insurgent casualties from the beginning of the insurrection on February 24, 1895, to December 31, 1895, were: Killed, 26 chiefs, 1,190 men; wounded, 358; prisoners, 4 chiefs, 218 men. During the first four months of 1896 there are reported to have been killed 37 chiefs, 3,085 men; wounded, 20 chiefs, 1,618 men; prisoners, 20 chiefs, 330 men, beside 14 chiefs and 670 men who came in and surrendered. The total number of horses taken from the insurgents is given as 4,657. The Spanish official statistics admit that the royal forces have lost in killed and those who died of wounds or disease, 3 generals, 29 field officers, 272 officers and 4,892 men up to the end of March, 1896, which does not include the heavy casualties in April.

Washington, May 9.—The proceedings of the Spanish court martial in the case of the men captured on the schooner Competitor are being closely followed here, and there is fear that unless the matter is handled with great discretion it may result in straining the present friendly and amicable relations between the United States and Spain. Strong representations have been made to the state department on the subject, and the department certainly will not fail to intervene instantly if it should appear that all the Americans among the captives under trial are not treated with all the privileges accorded by the rules of civilized warfare. An insistence on this point would oblige the department to refuse to sanction the execution of the Americans, and, although it is not believed there is a disposition to carry the case to extremes, there is some danger that the Spanish may feel disposed to go further than prudence in the effort to discourage American filibustering parties by harsh treatment of these, the first to fall into their hands.

Philadelphia, May 9.—Word has been received in this city that the steamer Bermuda, over which there has been considerable anxiety because of the report that she had been chased by a Spanish man-of-war, had reached Trujillo and cleared for Puerto Cortez, Honduras. Nothing is said as to the landing of any arms and ammunition in Cuba.

LABOR TROUBLES.

Shut Down of a Kansas City Packing House—Miners Threaten to Hang Their Foreman.

Kansas City, Mo., May 9.—It is stated here that on Monday Swift & Co. will shut down their big packing plant for an indefinite period, on account of troubles which have existed for many months between the packing companies and those labor organizations which control the men in their employ.

Butte, Mont., May 9.—Two hundred and fifty miners, comprising all the employes of the Rarus mines, struck on Thursday because the foreman resigned. A threat was made to hang the new foreman, Gibbons. The union refuses to take up the case, and the men are becoming desperate.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 9.—The efforts of the common council to end the strike of the street railway employes has failed, and the special committee appointed to mediate has been discharged. About one hundred cars are being operated. Riotous demonstrations continue, cars are stoned, rails torn up and wires cut.

QUEBEC HEARD FROM.

Henry G. Carroll, M. P. for Kamouraska, Que., Sounds the Praises of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder.

It will be noticed by those who have studied the testimonials for this wonderful catarrhal remedy, that they are thoroughly unsectional in character. Every province in the Dominion through its members of parliament, and most prominent citizens, has told of the peculiar effectiveness of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. It is of a character that overcomes any local or climatic conditions, and as with Mr. Carroll, it is a most effective remedy for catarrhal troubles in whatever shape, not omitting hay fever, where it works like a charm, and in every case is speedy in effect.

For Sale--1388-Acre Farm

ABOUT 1000 ACRES OF WHICH IS PLOUGHABLE PRAIRIE OF FIRST-CLASS QUALITY.

120 Head of Cattle, 1 pedigree Hereford Bull. 12 Horses, Ploughs, Harrows, Reaper, Wagon, Sleds, and usual farm implements. Double Harness, Chain Harness, Bull Chains, Saddles (ladies' and gents'), Bridles, etc. Blacksmiths' Bellows, Anvil and Tools and Carpenters' Tools. Nine-room House, shingle roofed. Stable for 10 horses, with hay loft above. Stone Root-house, Store Buildings, Dairy, Cow Sheds, etc., etc. About 7 miles Standing Fences, in good order, Corrals, etc. Small lot Household Furniture, Stove and Pipes, Cooking Utensils, Crockery, etc.

THIS PROPERTY is within easy distance of many of the most important Gold Silver and Coal Mines in West Kootenay. The soil is the best bottom land, and the locality is one of the few places in the Province where so large a piece of good farm land can be found in one block. A river runs through the property, and rainbow trout are plentiful and afford capital sport. Deer abound in considerable numbers. Bear, Wolf, Coyote and other large game are to be found in the hills. There are two creeks recorded and belonging to the estate; one flows all the year round. Limestone and brick clay are to be had in the valley.

THE TITLE is Crown Grant. Immediate possession can be given.

THE CATTLE are well bred. A much larger herd could be farmed with the place. The bunch grass on the hills in the vicinity covers many thousands of acres, and is available to the few land owners in the valleys.

THE CLIMATE is not severe. The station was for many years the winter quarters of the H. B. Co.'s pack trains.

THE SOUTH-WEST KOOTENAY AND OSOYOOS Divisions of Yale District, British Columbia, judging from the actual ore products of the mines to date, are destined in the next year or two to be the richest and most important mineral centres in the world.

For Sale -- 20,000 Acres of Farming Land

IN CONTIGUOUS BLOCKS.

Beautifully watered, forming one of the finest estates in the Province; house and farm buildings; 2,000 head of cattle; 50 to 80 horses; easy approach; good roads; railways projected to property and the estate is in close proximity to some of the best developed and most promising gold mines in the District. The price of the whole is extremely moderate. Principals only treated with.

These localities are rapidly settling up, and as farm land is limited, great inducement is offered to any person or corporation having capital and knowledge necessary to work these Estates. A store, hotel and blacksmith shop could be run in connection with the farm.

A COMPARISON.

The Grit papers seem to think that Mr. Laurier has made a great advance towards the settlement of the Manitoba school question when he declared his intention of sending Sir Oliver Mowat to Winnipeg to negotiate with the Government of that province. But a man who knows a great deal more about Manitoba than Sir Oliver does, and who occupies a higher place in the regard of its inhabitants than Ontario's Premier, Sir Donald A. Smith, was sent as a peace commissioner to Winnipeg, but the Manitoba Government would not accede to the terms he offered. What reason is there to believe that Sir Oliver Mowat will be more successful? None whatever.

THE PREMIER IN WINNIPEG.

Our readers have no doubt noticed that Sir Charles Tupper spoke as plainly and as emphatically on the school question in Winnipeg as he did in Ottawa. He did not beat about the bush or hide his meaning in a cloud of words. He did not leave the least room for anyone, friend or opoenent, to misunderstand or misinterpret him. He told the Winnipeg audience what he believed to be the truth, not waiting apparently to consider whether it was palatable or unpalatable to those who heard him. Sir Charles has always the courage of his opinions. And it is evident that his honesty and his pluck were noticed and admired. Our Winnipeg correspondent tells us that the Premier's speech was well received, and that yesterday large numbers of his admirers and supporters called upon him, no doubt to express their approval of what he had said the evening before. It is significant that the Premier's first campaign address was delivered in the city in which it is supposed that the opposition to his policy is most intense and most bitter. It is not without reason that Sir Charles has been called the War Horse of Cumberland. He is indeed a statesman whose courage and whose energy are unbounded.

NOT AN ANSWER.

The Times tries to make its readers believe that Sir Donald Smith said that Mr. Laurier has been as "frank, open and honest in his political utterances" as Sir Charles Tupper. Sir Donald Smith said nothing of the kind. He was, in fact, never asked to institute such a comparison. He merely said that he considered Mr. Laurier an honorable man who was as anxious as anybody that the school question should be settled, and who would have been only too willing to help the commissioners when they went to Winnipeg. This was Sir Donald's opinion. He may have been right or he may have been, as we believe he was, altogether too charitable in his judgment of Mr. Laurier. What we asked for was a statement as to a matter of fact. "Can," we said, "any man in Canada, whether he is Conservative or Liberal, Protestant or Catholic, with truth and sincerity say that the Hon. Mr. Laurier is equally frank, open and honest in his utterances on political questions" (as Sir Charles Tupper). Mr. Laurier's utterances on political questions are on record. Anyone who understands English or French, who reads them carefully and intelligently, will be able to say whether he has in those utterances been frank, open and honest. Where is Mr. Laurier's manifesto? Where can we find a simple, clear and unambiguous statement of his political belief and intentions? He has said a very great deal and his utterances are variously interpreted by his followers. The Quebec Grits say they mean one thing and the Ontario Grits declare they mean another; but Mr. Laurier takes very good care not to tell them what he really did mean. An address to the electors of the Dominion would, if it were honestly worded, clear up all misunderstandings, but we hear nothing of such an address.

THE SIMPLE TRUTH.

Sir Charles Tupper is accused in the Grit Weekly of making a false statement when he says in his address: "The Liberal party has declared for free trade as it is in England, but always as removing every vestige of protection." There are hundreds in this city who heard the leader of the Liberal party declare that free trade as it is in England is his "ideal," and the Liberal Platform contains the following paragraph:

"We denounce the principle of protection as radicaliy unsound, and unjust to the masses of the people, and we declare our conviction that any tariff changes based on that principle must fail to afford any substantial relief from the burdens under which the country labors."

It is not difficult to see that in a tariff framed according to this profession of Grit faith, not a vestige of protection could be discerned.

Sir Charles Tupper must have adhered very closely to facts when even a carping Grit opponent could not find in his address even a trifling deviation from the truth.

PERSISTENT LYING.

One of the Smart Alecs of the Grit party in the Grit Weekly says: "This deliberate denial of cabinet rank to Mr. Prior places him in a very peculiar position as regards his constituents." Mr. Prior has been accorded "cabinet rank," he has taken his seat in the cabinet and he has exercised the powers of a cabinet minister. His right to the position has not been questioned in the House of Commons or out of it by any public man who has a reputation to lose. Irresponsible scribblers who believe that persistence in lying will serve an election purpose deny that Col. Prior is a cabinet minister, but men who respect themselves, and desire others to respect their word, whether written or spoken, would scorn to attempt to take advantage of electors whose knowledge of political affairs is limited, by making a statement as impudent as it is false. When the electors of Victoria see that Col. Prior's cabinet rank has been recognized by men of both parties in the House of Commons during a long session in which the debates were more than ordinarily bitter, they must see that the men in Victoria who declare that he is not a cabinet minister are saying what they know to be false, are doing what they can to deceive them. We cannot imagine that the smart Alecs of the Grit daily and the Grit weekly are so densely ignorant and so ineffably stupid as not to know that when they assert that Col. Prior has been denied cabinet rank they are deliberately, and with intent to deceive, saying what is utterly false. They may, perhaps, believe that lying about a political matter is part of their smartness.

A QUEBEC UTTERANCE.

It has become very apparent that Mr. Laurier's double dealing on the school question will before long be completely exposed. His pledge to "restore" separate schools to Manitoba, made in Montreal, is on record, and he gave, in the House of Commons, on the 14th of April last, what must have been his reason for making that pledge. This is what he said, taken from Hansard, page 6379:

"Sir, we have in this very matter an example of hasty and ill-considered legislation. When the Manitoba act was considered in this House of Commons, it is a matter of history that the intention of the Legislature was to put the Roman Catholic minority in Manitoba on exactly the same footing as the Roman Catholic minority in Ontario and the Protestant minority in Quebec, that is to say, that their separate schools would be beyond the reach of the Legislature of Manitoba, that they would be in such a position that the Legislature of Manitoba would no more touch their schools than the Legislature of Ontario can touch the separate schools of that province, or than the Legislature of Quebec could touch the separate schools in that province. Therefore, through hasty legislation, through ill-considered legislation, through undigested legislation such as we have to-day, the intention of the Parliament was not carried out, with the result that the minority have been deprived of their schools. Is not that the case? The Minister of Finance has admitted that such was the intention of a former Parliament, but the intention of Parliament was not carried out. The Privy Council by its judgment in the Barrett case, decided that the Legislature of Manitoba could deal with this question, whereas the intention of Parliament here was that it should not deal with the question."

It will be remembered that Mr. Laurier condemned the remedial bill as a "half-hearted measure," consequently the bill which he will introduce will be wholehearted from his point of view, and therefore more favorable to the minority than the one which the obstructionist minority strangled. But Mr. Laurier proposes to accomplish his end, namely, the restoration of separate schools to the Roman Catholic minority of Manitoba, by conciliatory means. Our readers are in a position to judge of the likelihood of the majority in Manitoba ever voluntarily agreeing to a proposal made by Mr. Laurier, or anyone else, to restore the separate schools which were abolished by the Act of 1890. Their refusal would of course make remedial legislation for Mr. Laurier a necessity, for without such legislation it would be impossible to fulfil the solemn promise he made to the electors of the province of Quebec.

CORRECTLY STATED.

It is not often that American newspapers try to get a clear and a correct view of Canadian questions. The consequence is that when they attempt to discuss them they often make the most grotesque mistakes and arrive at very absurd conclusions. The New York Commercial Advertiser's article on "The Manitoba School Dispute" is a striking exception to the articles in American papers on purely Canadian topics. It has inquired carefuily into the facts connected with the dispute and sees very clearly the principle involved. It, after a short statement of the case, goes on to say:

Manitoba is practically in open revolt against the Dominion Government. In deliberate defiance of decisions by the highest judicial tribunals that Province persists in refusing Roman Catholics the right to State-aided schools of their own. It is true the ruling element in Manitoba maintain that these schools in the past were little better than nurseries of ignorance and bigotry, and that wiping them out has tended to break down the barriers of race and creed. Perhaps these statements are well-founded. Whether they are or not, however, the fact remains that Manitoba has rebelled against Canadian authority. Her position at present is analagous to that of South Carolina during the nullification episode.

It is a mistake therefore to look upon the Manitoba school controversy as a struggle between Protestantism and Catholicism. It is far more serious than that. Involved in it is the question of the very existence of the Canadian federation itself. If Manitoba is at liberty to decry and defy the supremacy of the central government in a matter concerning public education, why are not Ontario and Quebec at liberty to follow her example on some other pretext? Where is such a policy to end? No one desires to see the people of Manitoba imposed upon. Their demand that public money shall not be used to support sectarian schools is undoubtedly a sound one. But in disregarding the explicit decrees of the courts they take a stand which is likely to lessen American sympathy for their cause.

In the above passage the main principle involved in the dispute is stated with admirable clearness and precision. The question is not one between Catholic and Protestant, but of good faith in carrying out the terms of Confederation. Is the federal compact to be faithfully carried out, or can it be disregarded whenever it suits the whim or the convenience of a province to set at naught its provisions?

Blood purified, disease cured, sickness and suffering prevented—this is the record made each year by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

WILLIAM WILSON, PRESIDENT. R. T. WILLIAMS, SECRETARY.

Freeburn Gold Mining Company

LIMITED LIABILITY.

INCORPORATED UNDER THE ACT OF 1890 AND AMENDING ACTS.

Capital, $500,000, in Shares of $1.00 Each.

Trustees—Wm. Wilson, John Irving, L. Goodacre.

The above company was incorporated for the purposes of purchasing and developing the Freeburn mineral claim, situated near Rossland, B.C. The Freeburn lies immediately east of the Nest Egg ground, and adjoins the Homestake on the north, the Gopher being southeast and Palo Alto northeast of it. There are three well defined ledges of ore on the claim, two running easterly and westerly, and one north and south, varying in width from three to twenty feet.

W. A. Crane, who examined the property, states: "The north vein is no doubt the Nest Egg vein, and appears true and strong, but it is as yet untouched. I also examined all stakes and found them correct, leaving no flaw in title. The claim is admirably situated for working purposes, and will, I am sure, respond to development and prove a very valuable property. I have been mining and examining mines for years, and have found all the physical conditions favorable for the Freeburn to rank with our best mines."

H. Stevenson, superintendent of the Homestake and Nest Egg mines, states: "With proper development I would look to see this property (the Freeburn) becoming valuable as a gold producer, its ores increasing in size and value as depth and development are attained. The fact of the railroad now being built across the claim adds to its value materially, as it gives a very cheap output for its ores. Its adjoining the Homestake on the north adds materially to its worth."

J. J. Henager, a practical miner and mine owner, makes an affidavit in which occurs the following statements: "The Freeburn has upon it three well defined ledges of gold bearing rock. Two of the said ledges are about three hundred feet apart, and running in an easterly and westerly direction, and one crossing the said two ledges on the property, and extending north and south the whole length of the property and crossing right through the Homestake. I find the Freeburn property correctly staked and located with assessment work done and recorded for the current year, and that there are no adverse stakes or other locations or contests in regard to this property. The topography of the Freeburn is similar to the Homestake, and all indications point to the fact that the Freeburn, with proper development, will become a valuable mine, the ledges being from three to twenty feet wide on the surface. After a most careful examination of the Freeburn on three different locations, I am convinced that it is one of the most promising and remarkable properties in the camp."

Preliminary sales of shares have already been made of Freeburn stock, among the purchasers being Wm. Munsie, Thos. Shotbolt, James Dunsmuir, J. H. Turner, C. E. Pooley, and a number of others. The control of the stock is altogether in Victoria, the vendors retaining one-fifth. The head office of the company is in Victoria, and the management of its affairs is in the hands of responsible men, so that purchasers of stock are fully assured that their interest will be thoroughly protected. It is the intention of the company to at once proceed with the practical development of the mine, and W. J. Sutton, Mining Engineer, of the Michigan School of Mines, will immediately make an examination of the property so that work will be directed to the best advantage. It is believed that development will uncover a large body of rich ore, for it is a well denonstrated fact in mining that where a vein is intersected by a cross vein, as in the case of the Freeburn, pay ore is certain to exist.

A limited number of the shares of the Freeburn Company's stock are now for sale at the rate of ten cents per share. These are vendors' share and are fully paid up. Applications for same may be made to the undersigned at his office, or by letter to the same address.

THE funeral of the late Katie Hill, daughter of Mr. W. J. Hill, of H. M. Customs, Sault Ste Marie, took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. David Stevens, Lake District. Rev. J. W. Flinton officiated at Cedar Hill church and at the grave side. The pall-bearers were Messrs. E. Harup, J. M. Leigh, A. Daniels, J. Black, J. Holmes and P. Gamblin.

How to read character from common signs will be the subject of Professor Alexander's lecture at the A.O.U.W. hall to-morrow evening, at the close of which the Professor will give a test examination of subjects selected by the audience after he has been blindfolded. This is considered to be one of the most difficult of all character reading tests, and the manner in which the Professor is able to describe not only the mental characteristics of the different individuals but their physical organization and personal appearance, such as color of hair, eyes, etc., with unvarying accuracy has proved a most convincing proof of his exceptional ability as a phrenologist. The lecture will be the last given by him to both sexes. On Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons the Professor lectures to ladies and in the evening to men only.

ANNA EVA FAY, the "Fair Mahatma," will appear at the A.O.U.W. hall Thursday, Friday and Saturday next. Miss Fay almost always plays in the leading theatres, but in this city previously arranged engagements prevented. A very successful week was finished last Saturday at the Seattle theatre, so successful that three more performances will be given in that city following her engagement here. Miss Fay will present here her weird, wonderful and interesting entertainment, including her latest Oriental sensation, "Somnolency," a feature that has created a perfect furore, it is said, in every city in which Miss Fay has appeared; it is the demonstration of a most peculiar power, possessed by no one, so it is said, except this most interesting woman, called by many the "Wonder of the Nineteenth Century." If Anna Eva Fay had lived a century or two ago and performed such marvellous tricks and "things" as she does now she would have been deemed a witch and burned at the stake. And yet what she does to-day far surpasses in wonder what the greatest witches did in those days. And people nowadays like to witness such manifestations if one can judge at all from the great crowds that attend Miss Fay's performances. In short, anyone who wants to be amused merely, or anyone who wants to see something to study about cannot afford to miss seeing Miss Fay.

ISADORE RUSH, the handsome leading lady of Roland Reed's company, is the owner of 456 dresses.

KLAW AND ERLANGER will send their great production, "The Brownies," to the Coast next season.

THE evidence in Nicholson v. Gutman was finished yesterday and the Chief Justice gave judgment in favor of plaintiff for $462.

ALD. WILLIAMS has given notice to move that tenders be called for the city advertising instead of dividing it between the daily papers as at present.

AH SING was yesterday sentenced in the police court to two months with hard labor for stealing from the Dominion hotel, and Ah Yeng for supplying liquor to Indians was fined $50.

TO SECURE the better prevention of fires Ald. Partridge intends moving in the direction of amending the building by-law so as to put a stop to the practice of repairing wooden buildings within the fire limits.

ALD. PARTRIDGE has given notice that he will move to introduce a by-law to regulate the use of bicycles on the public streets. He will before drawing up the measure call a meeting of cyclists to get their views on the subject.

ACCORDING to a circular just issued by the Educational Department the subject of agriculture is to be taught in the graded and common schools after August next. Lessons on the subject must be given at least twice a week to pupils of the fourth and fifth readers, and the teachers are required to devote the same attention to the study as they do physiology. The circular stipulates that the High school candidates will not be obliged to pass an examination in the study until a year from date. Mills & Shaw's "Public School Agriculture," published by the J. E. Bryant Co., Toronto, is the text book authorized for use here.

THE Stock Exchange of British Columbia, Victoria, which was organized on the 5th inst. by the election of Mr. D. R. Harris as president and a full list of officers selected from amongst leading business men and brokers of the city, has leased the offices on Broad street lately occupied by A. H. Harman & Co., and extensive alterations are in progress. The front office will be enlarged and will be used as the exchange room. Private offices will be set apart for the accommodation of the officers and others having business to transact with the exchange. Correspondence has been opened with mine owners and brokers in other parts of the province, and a full list of stocks will be called about the 25th inst. The exchange will begin business with fifty members.

AMATEUR MINSTRELS.

The Closing Performance Given With Plenty of Snap and Vim.

The first corner man, Mr. George E. Powell, had a brand new gag to hurl at the inoffensive public last evening when the curtain rose on the second performance of the amateur minstrels.

"Do you know, Mistah Lampman," he observed, "I'm not going to wash this black off ma face all week."

"Why, for what reason, Mr. Powell?" graciously inquired his partner from the middle chair.

"Well, after last night I prefer to keep dark for a while,"—whereat the smile passed round the semi-circle.

There were a few crudities in the first night's performance, and all knew it; they showed their wisdom by recognition of the fact, and made the second evening's show infinitely better than its predecessor. There were new jokes and most of the songs of the first night, which were well worth hearing over again. Particularly pleasing last evening was Mr. Pilling's "I long to lay my head on mother's knee," the singer being in much improved voice and the song suiting admirably his special style of work—that of a most acceptable minstrel vocalist.

Later in the programme several other surprises were afforded last night's house, few being aware of the extent of little Sam Johnson's versatility in the art of entertaining or that in Master Powell Victoria has a soprano singer who is almost a phenomenon. His voice and method combined hold the closest attention, the former being of pure quality and considerable range, while his ease and perfect articulation make his music even more agreeable. Sam Johnson proved in his special turn almost as clever and artistic a vaudeville worker as the local chevalier—Fred. Richardson.

The coon wedding—and particularly the bride, Mrs. Isabella Spruce, nee Will Higgins; the splendidly executed military drill of the men of the 5th Regiment; the skirt dancing, and half a dozen other specially pretty features—each and all commanded their full meed of praise—and got it.

Mr. H. J. Tennant, member of parliament for Berwickshire in the Liberal interest, and brother of Mrs. Henry Asquith, formerly Margaret Tennant, and said to be the original "Dodo," is to be married shortly to Miss May Abraham, chief lady inspector of factories. Their engagement is quite in the nature of a romance. Mr. Tennant first met Miss Abrahams during the course of his official duties as secretary to her brother-in-law, Mr. Henry Asquith, then home secretary. She is tall, with beautiful black eyes, and is about 26 years of age.

VICTORIA AMITIES

After a Magnificent Struggle Whitewash the Wellington Baseball Team at the Park.

The Play Clean and Remarkably Free From Errors—The Score 2 to 0.

Baseball has the call this year. Early yesterday morning at the head of Pandora street two junior nines were hard at work struggling for supremacy, while other games were in progress at the public school grounds, Beacon Hill park and Victoria West. The great local attraction in baseball yesterday, however, was the contest between the Amities and the Wellingtons. The game was a record braker, and the score of two to nothing in favor of the home team will have a leading place in the baseball annals of this city. The game will go on record, because it was the first time that a team was ever shut out on home grounds. Two to nothing is an uncommon event even among league clubs, and the progress of the game in amateur circles is evidenced in a striking manner when seventeen innings can be played and only two runs cross the plate. Wriglesworth was the Amity twirler yesterday, and although it was his first appearance in the box he showed up like a veteran. He had splendid curves, perfect control and speed, and never for a moment lost his head. From the commencement of the game Wriglesworth had the visiting batsmen at his mercy. Whilst Darby, who is doing such great work far Victoria, was the first pitcher in the newly formed professional orgrnization to shut out an opposing team, Wriglesworth has emulated Victoria's star twirler's record by being the first pitcher to blank a nine in Victoria. With Wriglesworth in the box the Amities need fear no amateur nine on the Coast. King, the Wellington pitcher, in keeping the Amities down to two runs made no mean performance. His work was of the star order. Wriglesworth's most effective balls were a quick out drop and a high raise ball, whilst King varied between an out that curved suddenly at the plate and a straight drop. The battery work of both nines was perfect, neither having a wild pitch or a passed ball.

The game was called punctually at three, and from the time that Wriglesworth shot the sphere across the rubber until the last one of the visitors succumbed to his prowess, there was not the slightest drag or delay. It was an ideal spectators' contest. Neither team scored in the first two innings. In the third the Amities got one of their brace. Wilson trotted to the initial bag on an error by Palmer, and Huxtable also got his base on an error. Huxtable and Duck were disposed of, and then Gus. Gowen delighted the supporters of the home team by cracking out a hit and driving Wilson across the plate. Scott went out on a fly to Gouge, who made a grand running catch, and the inning was over with a tally for the Amities. The score remained unchanged until the seventh, although both nines struggled to the utmost to get a lead. In the seventh, however, the Amities scored another run on a two-bagger by Wriglesworth and a timely hit by Partridge. The Wellingtons made a splendid fight, and played ball for all they were worth. It looked as if the visitors would succeed in getting in a run in the last innings. Simmons put the ball over the grand stand and went to second. King took his base on called balls, and in the meantime Simmons had reached third on a sacrifice by Dalton. King made a clever steal to second while Wriglesworth was holding the ball. It was a ruse to get Wriglesworth to throw to second and allow Simmons to score on the throw. The Wellington coacher at the same time urged Wriglesworth to throw, but the Amity twirler was on to his game and showed fine head work in not running the risk of an overthrow or muff, thus presenting Wellington with an opportunity of tieing the score.

The fielding of both teams was superb. Jackson at third and Scott at second had little to do; but they handled everything that came by and Jackson's running catch of a high fly created hearty applause. Wilson, at second, and Partridge also made fine catches, whilst Duck's four outs in left and Gus Gowen's two in centre were on a line with their well known work. Both pitchers were accorded splendid support, although Wriglesworth was favored slightly in this respect, as only one of the Amity runs was earned. Huxtable, for the Amities, and Simmons for the visitors did some great back-stopping. There seemed to be perfect understanding between pitchers and catchers, and the low score can be accounted for chiefly because Wriglesworth and King were accorded such splendid support behind the bat.

Although there were some very close base decisions, both teams are deserving of the highest commendation for accepting the umpire's ruling. When Wriglesworth made his two bagger he had to make a long slide to get second, and it was a narrow shave. The Wellington players only offered the mildest protest when Wriglesworth was declared safe. An equally close decision was given when an attempt was made by the Amities to double a Wellington man at second. In both of these instances the umpire favored the runner, and happily on this occasion it was a case of "hoss and hoss." Papa Gouge was a favorite with the crowd, and when he made his hit, there was as much pleasure exhibited by the spectators as if an Amity man had made his bag. Here is the score:

That

Extreme tired feeling afflicts nearly everybody at this season. The hustlers cease to push, the tireless grow weary, the energetic become enervated. You know just what we mean. Some men and women endeavor temporarily to overcome that

Tired

Feeling by great force of will. But this is unsafe, as it pulls powerfully upon the nervous system, which will not long stand such strain. Too many people "work on their nerves," and the result is seen in unfortunate wrecks marked "nervous prostration," in every direction. That tired ing is a positive proof of thin, weak, impure blood; for, if the blood is rich, red, vitalized and vigorous, it imparts life and energy to every nerve, organ and tissue of the body. The necessity of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for that tired feeling is, therefore, apparent to every one, and the good it will do you is equally beyond question. Remember that

She Has Double the Catch of Seals of Any Other Victoria Schooner.

Return of the "City of San Diego" —The "Tees" Starts for Victoria.

It will be gratifying to those interested in the sealing schooner Favorite, as also to the many friends of Capt. McLean, her skipper, to learn that that vessel has doubled the catch of any other of the coast sealers which have as yet returned home. Such, however, is her good luck, reported by Capt. W. McDougall, of the City of San Diego, which arrived home yesterday afternoon. Capt. McDougall could not recollect the exact number of skins secured by the Favorite, but when he met her off Cross Sound on April 25, she had in the neighborhood of 800 skins. His vessel worked alongside the Favorite for a day, and he knew that the latter's hunters killed in that time 112 seal. There were several other vessels in the same locality. The Captain spoke the Beatrice on April 29 with 375, and on the same day the Louis Olsen with 400 skins. About two weeks before the Annie C. Moore was fallen in with, and some days before starting for home the Minnie was spoken with something like 400 skins, to the Moore's 160. Capt. McDougall regrets exceedingly that he had not a better working Indian crew, for, if he had, his catch would now compare favorably with that of the Favorite. Luck, however, was against him, and he was handicapped through the loss of two canoes, one of which has since arrived here. The other got lost on a calm day close in shore, and he has little or no anxiety for it. His catch was 213 skins.

LAST MONTH'S SHIPPING.

April's shipping business is thus reviewed in Messrs. R. P. Rithet & Co.'s monthly circular just issued: "April with grain chartering was decidedly dull, as owners still prefer to await the harvest rather than accept current rates for old crop loading. The prospect of the coming crop are improving and rates are strengthened accordingly. The demand for lumber tonnage continues to widen, although freights remain at about the same level, and one or two charters are reported for rather unusual destinations. The vessels now arriving are mostly chartered. The usual inquiry at this season for vessels for salmon cargo has resulted in four fixtures for England. The rates are understood to be 35s. from this port, and 37s. 6d. from the Fraser river."

VOYAGING TO VICTORIA.

Among the saloon passengers aboard the Walla Walla, which sailed from San Francisco yesterday morning, are the following for Victoria: Mrs. H. L. Madsen, Miss G. AN INTERESTING CHART.

The U. S. hydrographic office has just issued a new chart, 1,531, of the Arctic regions, with the tracks of search parties and the progress of discovery by them, compiled from the latest information. The tracks of the various expeditions and the discoveries made by them are shown in different colors, so that the progress made can be readily traced. This chart can be purchased from the regular agents for hydrographic office publications.

THE "MONTEREY" LIBELED.

A libel was filed in the United States district court at Seattle on Friday by the owners of the steamship Transit against the Monterey, claiming damages of $10,000. The Transit collided with the Monterey while the latter vessel was lying at anchor in Seattle harbor April 12 last, and the United States government on the 21st ult. libelled the Transit for the same collision, claiming the Monterey was damaged $3,000.

ROLAND REED'S ENGAGEMENT.

The Ever-Popular Comedian to Be Seen Here This Week in "The Politician" and "The Woman Hater."

On Wednesday of this week Mr. Roland Reed will open a two nights' engagement in the Victoria theatre in "The Politician," which has been universally pronounced one of the good things of the theatrical year. Mr. Reed is fun personified, and he has in General Josiah Limber a role that exactly suits his quaint and pleasing manner.

"The Politician" is most entertaining and enjoyable, and a really excellent comedy. It is a happy combination of comedy and farce, and relates to the efforts of General Limber, a practical politician, to nominate his candidate for congress. The General's humor reaches its climax in the memorable scene outside the convention doors, wherein he formulates the platform, cuts a few splinters off the woman's suffrage plank, and instructs the workers. A snap shot of his attitude and expression as he explains the first campaign item to the unwilling candidate—"you see, the boys wanted some refreshments"—would be a photograph of his cleverest and the most realistic stage act.

The new woman is introduced and charmingly played by the beautiful Isadore Rush, of whom a critic recently said: "Hail to the twentieth century if Isadore Rush as 'Cleopatra Sturgess' be a true harbinger of the twentieth century young woman. She might pose as the goddess of laughter, and as for her smile, it is simply prismatic." There is nothing bold or swaggering about either the manner or appearance of this little "new woman," but a natural, unaffected womanliness which cannot fail to charm even those opposed to all fin de siecle notions.

Miss Rush's "swell" little suits of tweed and melton have excited a great deal of admiration and envy, as has also her manner of dressing her hair. This coiffure consists of simply parting her hair from the forehead across the crown of the head to the neck in the back. Then the two divisions are neatly and closely braided, then turned into two coils with just enough division between them to show the long, even part down the back of the head. Mr. Reed's company includes Miss Maud White, Mrs. Mary Myers, Wm. N. Berrard, Sheridan Tupper, James Douglas, Julian Reed, Charles Wyngate, John H. Bunny.

The engagement will close on Thursday evening with "The Woman Hater."

ATKINS VS. COY.

The Full Court Holds That Priority of Location Governs If a Mining Claim Is Recorded Within Statutory Limits.

A judgment of some importance to mining men was that delivered yesterday by the Full court, consisting of Justices McCreight, Walkem and Drake, in the appeal of Atkins vs. Coy. This was an appeal by the defendants from a decision of Judge Spinks, county court judge of Kootenay. The defendants and plaintiffs had each located the same mineral ground, the defendants making the prior location under the name of the Cariboo, but the plaintiffs recording first under the name of the Rambler, both claims being, however, recorded within the fifteen days time limit allowed by the statute. Judge Spinks held that in disputes relating to mining claims priority of record should prevail, and gave judgment in favor of the Rambler, which the plaintiffs had located after but had recorded before the Cariboo was registered. From this judgment the present appeal was taken. The Full court allowed the appeal with costs, holding that priority of location governed, provided the recording was done within the fifteen days allowed by the statute. The plaintiffs' counter appeal for a new trial as to priority of location was refused, but plaintiffs were allowed three months in which to proceed to a new trial on the question of the genuineness of the defendants' claim of title. Mr. W. J. Taylor and Mr. Robert Cassidy for appellants (defts.); Mr. A. J. McColl, Q. C., and Mr. E. V. Bodwell for respondents (plffs.)

BEST DECORATED BOAT.

To the Editor:—I would like to ask through the columns of your paper why the committee in charge refuse to allow naphtha launches to compete for the prize to be offered for the best decorated boat at the regatta on the 25th inst. I judge from the fact of such a prize being given that the idea is to induce all craft of any description to decorate, and thus enhance the beauty of the scene up the Arm. I know of two owners of naphtha launches who intended to decorate their boats. One at least was prepared to lay out $25 or $30 for that purpose. I think an explanation from the secretary of the regatta committee would be in order.

SPRING STYLES.

Puffed Sleeves and Spring Jackets—The Latter Are Lined With Silk.

Plain bodices are seen this spring, the trimming being flat and the bodice itself tight. In some cases a plain plastron is buttoned on in front; in others the bodice opens under the arm and on the shoulder, while there are a few where the closing is at the back.

A new sleeve is made with four puffs, each about four inches wide. These are pushed up together until they occupy a space of but four inches. Below this is a loose puff to the elbow, then a fitted cuff, with a puff at the wrist. The fancy for points extending over the hands is quite decided. If the modification in the size of sleeves continues—for it is really an acomplished thing that they are smaller—it vill make a perceptible difference in the mount of dress goods it is necessary to uy for a gown.

The jacket remains the correct outside ear with tailor gowns and for young girls. may be single or double breasted, with ort or long revers, these diminishing ry gradually if the jacket has an open ont. The fronts may be square or round the lower corners, and the edge may be ished with one or several rows of stitch-g, this being repeated on the sleeves, vers and all suitable places. Embroidery the same material; galloon, a novel ar-ngement of plaiting or gathering the seve; little pockets, real or simulated, dposed to the best advantage, and a lin-g of plain or changeable silk of a light de are some of the means used to give ividuality and effect to the new jackets.

The illustration shows a striking spring costume. The godet skirt is of brown serge and is entirely plain. The bodice is of colours chinois. The full fronts open ov a plastron of the same material and are connected by two straps of black satin fanned by buttons. Two similar straps arn each shoulder. The plastron has a yoke of white satin, trimmed with lace and an application of black satin. Epaulets of white satin and lace fall over the top of the brown serge sleeves, which are finished at the wrist by plaited cuffs of velvet. The belt is of black satin.

NEW MILLINERY.

Flowers Are the Principal Trimming, Thigh Feathers Still Hold Their Own.

Awardly full skirts and sleeves and mother specimens of millinery have had their day. The only exaggeration that strikes one at the present time is the height of feathers and aigrets that are not only absurd, but supremely inconvenient, as they brush against cab and carriage linings and become damaged in so doing. It is hoped, however, that this lofty trimming will disappear and that low arrangements will prevail next season. The high ornaments have been worn so long that it is about time to expect a change, regardless of whether it is beautiful or not.

Flower trimming will be characteristic of this season, and there are an immense number of artificial botanical products to choose from. Roses are exceedingly esteemed, and pets have not lost their prestige, while one of the latest novelties consists of sprays of foliage alone, to be employed as trimming. Exaggerated silk and velvet pansies are also seen.

Ostrich feathers, both large and small, are much used. They are always fragile and always beautiful and require renewing even more frequently than do flowers in order to look well.

Immense quantities of tulle and other diaphanous material are to be employed for summer millinery on both hats and bonnets. There is no limit to the number of times these delicate, easily wilted fabrics must be changed, but while they are fresh they are very pretty.

The width of edgear seems to be by no means diminished by the reduction in the size of sleeves. Broad trimmings continue to be the rule, although they are generally unbecoming.

Some of the large imported hats have a long scarf at the back, composed of chiffon or tulle with applications and a frilled end of lace. These are very effective and charming, but are only suited to long purses, as women who cannot afford a variety of hats will find such fanciful millinery not at all useful.

The illustration given today shows a novel capote. It has a small crown of black spangles, which is surrounded by white lilies. A high spray of white lilies stands up on the right side while below is a butterfly of plaited black lace, held in the middle by a paste ornament. The buds and foliage of the lily are introduced in the trimming.

HOW TO BE PRETTY.

Care of Health and Complexion a Duty. A Southern Woman's Methods.

A southern woman who was a belle and beauty in her youth, and who, at the age of 60, possesses the slight, rounded form of a girl, with the mental and physical activity that accompanies it, has set forth for her young relatives a number of hints and suggestions for being pretty, sweet and attractive generally, which have come in her experience. As reported in the New York Tribune, this woman considers the care of health and complexion a duty. In her opinion, whether the complexion be good, indifferent or even bad, to bestow a fair amount of care on its improvement and the various small items appertaining to the health and appearance is only rational. To get these she advises the eating of a great deal of chopped meat without any potato in it, the drinking of little fluid of any kind, except tea, and exercising a great deal without drinking, and abstaining from bread and butter and sweets. Lemonade, acid drinks of all kinds and saline mineral waters are excellent, she declares. She prescribes a glass of clear water taken before breakfast.

To get fat, she says, one must eat vegetables and sleep after each meal. Retire at 9 o'clock and lie in bed half an hour after waking in the morning. One must laugh a great deal, drink water by the pint or quart, drink weak and sweet tea, with plenty of milk in it, take cod liver oil and sweet oil as much as possible, eat abundantly, put plenty of butter on one's bread and not be shy of ales and sweet wines. Five pounds a month have been gained under this regimen, and if an unusual amount of sleep is secured double that amount.

To have a white skin eat no meat whatever. Become a vegetarian. Once in six weeks or so partake of fresh meat. Drink much water, eat little grease and touch neither tea nor coffee. For breakfast eat oatmeal and oranges, for dinner fruit, nuts, fruit tea, preferably quince tea; graham muffins, cauliflower croquettes, marmalade and dishes of stewed vegetables. This diet is said to be not bad when one is used to it, but it is dangerous unless the doctor permits it.

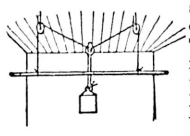

To become muscular walk a great deal, carrying something always in the arms. Rolling a hoop is recommended, and lifting something each day is advised. Avoid straining or tiring oneself. Eat meat, drink milk and practice bending backward, forward and sideways every day. At night rub about a tablespoonful of brandy or rum into the skin on the under part of the arms.

To have plump hands rub them with sweet oil night and morning. Exercise them by rubbing together. Avoid tight sleeves and tight gloves. To keep the feet small wear shoes as long as can be managed, but not quite so wide as necessary. Never indulge in old slippers about the house unless they are snug in the width, and be careful of corns.

To have a good color wash the face with the juice of preserved strawberries in winter, and in summer rub a ripe berry over the face. Bathe afterward with very warm water. For a smooth, white skin, without dieting, bathe the face daily with buttermilk. A preparation of tincture of benzoin and rose-water is recommended instead. Use creams, but never cheap creams. They must be compounded of fine and pure materials. Of course it is intended that those who would try these suggestions should first find out their physical needs in order to apply the right remedy.

A Kitchen Convenience.

A convenient pole to hang clothes or dish towels open behind the kitchen stove, sketched originally for The Farm Journal, is worth thinking about. Its especial convenience lies in the fact that it can be raised to the ceiling, out of the way when not in use. Cords at either end pass up through pulleys in the ceiling, and along the ceiling to a loop near the wall, where the two cords meet and are attached to an iron weight, which is large or small according to the prospective loads which the pole is to carry. It can easily be made and put up by the home carpenter.

A CONVENIENT CLOTHES POLE.

Orange Cake.

Here is Good Housekeeping's recipe: Cream together 2 cupfuls of sugar and the yolks of 4 eggs, add the grated rind and juice of an orange, then half a cupful of cold water; next 2 cupfuls of flour with 2 teaspoonfuls of cream of tartar and 1 of soda; lastly add the whites of 2 eggs beaten stiff. Bake in layers.

Filling For Cake.—The whites of 2 eggs beaten and made stiff with frosting sugar; add the juice and rind of an orange. If the orange used in the cake is very large and juicy, it may require a little more flour. It is well to bake a tiny bit of the cake dough in a small tin before baking the whole cake to ascertain if there is enough flour in the cake.

Fads and Fancies.

Blouses for the approaching season are of beautiful embroidered batiste and muslin, made over delicate shaded silks.

With regard to skirts, they are at a standstill—that is, all seem to be content with the full gored skirt, which is graceful and easy to walk.

There is a serious attempt to bring back the broad strings to the hats and bonnets.

Many of the newest cloth costumes show white waistcoats and cuffs and white facings.

Watteau plaits in the back are a feature of almost all tea gowns.

An up to date novelty is a gold brooch in pierced work, with a diamond cluster in the center.

An amethyst forms the central stone in some of the diamond rings.

When Your Cake Is All Dough

When your cake is heavy, soggy, indigestible, it's a pretty sure sign that you didn't shorten it with COTTOLENE. When this great shortening is rightly used, the result will surely satisfy the most fastidious. Always remember that the quality of COTTOLENE makes a little of it go a long way. It's willful waste to use more than two-thirds as much as you would of lard or butter. Always use COTTOLENE this way, and your cake and pastry will always be light, wholesome, delicious.

Genuine COTTOLENE is sold everywhere in tins, with trade-marks—"Cottolene" and steer's head in cotton-plant wreath—on every tin.

COURT AND SOCIETY.

London at Its Best—Dissatisfaction at the Semi-Private Character of the Next Royal Marriage.

LONDON, May 9.—London has been at its best during the past week. The weather was warm and the bright parks and streets have been crowded. In spite of the fact that many new cycling clubs have been organized, that Hyde park was thronged with cyclists, there are signs so-called that the wheeling craze is on the wane among the leaders of fashion. Several of the latter who were the first to take to "bicycling" are now always to be seen in the park on horseback.

West-end store keepers are in despair owing to the Queen showing a strong disposition to cut down the ceremonies attending the coming wedding on account of the fact that the family is in mourning. The Queen's growing sentiment in regard to all the deceased members of her family is well known, and has of late years developed into something of a mania. This has been instanced by her ordering the return for preservation in Windsor of the donkeys which Prince Battenberg had used in Africa. The proposal, therefore, that the wedding of Princess Maude will take place in the private chapel of Buckingham palace, where the Duke and Duchess of Fife were married, is not kindly received in the quarters most concerned. It will be practically impossible to have a semi-private ceremony, owing to the fact that Prince Charles is the son of a reigning monarch, and is, moreover, closely allied to the English royal house. The usual etiquette, when any court is in private mourning at the time of a wedding in the royal family, is for black to be discarded on the day of the ceremony and at the functions which immediately precede the marriage.

Sir Oliver Mowat Afflicted with Kidney Trouble.

The news has been flashed across the wires from the old country that Sir Oliver Mowat, who is there seeking medical advice, is a victim of kidney disease. His friends say that the case is not as alarming as the press reports have stated. But there seems to be no disguising the fact, that with Ontario's Premier, as thousands of others, kidney disease has seized the system. It is laying waste the lives of our best people in all parts of the Dominion. And yet those who have learned to use South American Kidney Cure are finding in it a remedy far surpassing a sea voyage, or even the skill of England's greatest physicians. It is a kidney specific, not a cure-all, but as a specialist in this particular it gives relief within six hours after the first dose, and renewed health to all who use it.

Intense Pain From Sciatica. The Mystic Remedy South American Rheumatic Cure, Conquers in Two Days.

The following comes from the wealthy lumberman, of Merrickville, Ont., Mr. E. Errett: For a number of years I have suffered intense pain from rheumatism and sciatica in my left hip. It is needless to say I have doctored constantly, but without receiving anything but temporary relief. South American Rheumatic cure was at last tried and its effect was truly magical. In two days the pain was all gone, and two bottles of the remedy cured me completely. I was so bad that for two years I could not lie on my left side if I got the universe for so doing. At present I have not a symptom of sciatica or rheumatism, and hence it is with much pleasure that I recommend this great remedy. I know it will cure.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

Tacoma and Portland Score Again in the League Series—Opening Cricket Match.

VANCOUVER, May 9.—(Special)—President Campbell Sweeney and Secretary A. St. G. Hamersley of the Brockton Point Athletic Association at a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council last night expressed themselves as heartily in accord with the proposition to have a free recreation ground facing English bay. There is no opposition whatever to the Consolidated Tram and Light Co. scheme to have bathing sheds and park in reach of their line near English bay.

TACOMA DEFEATS VICTORIA AT BASEBALL.

TACOMA, Wn., May 9.—(Special)—The closest game of the league series was played here to-day between Victoria and Tacoma, and was won by the home team by a score of 8 to 5. Victoria is making a gallant fight considering that the British Columbia team has only one pitcher who can be looked upon as capable of reliable work. It is understood, though, that Victoria will be strengthened in the box by the addition of a strong twirler, who will be ready for work next week. The impression prevails that if the Victoria team can get another fairly good pitcher they will not be far from the pennant when the season winds up. The Tacoma battery was Pastorius and Donovan, whilst Babbitt and Kossuch were in the points for the visitors. Babbitt did good work, but was slightly wild. Manager Klopf has protested the game, as local manager had but three instead of six new balls on the ground, and Victoria could not get a chance at new balls.

SCORE BY INNINGS.

Tacoma	0	0	1	4	0	0	2	0	1	—8
Victoria	0	0	1	1	0	0	0	2	1	—5

Summary—Runs earned off Pastorius, 1; off Babbitt, 2. Two-base hits—Pastorius, Gates, Pequigney. Sacrifices—Cook, Ogden. Left on bases—Tacoma, 9; Victoria, 7. Stolen bases—Tacoma, 15; Victoria, 12. Bases on balls—Pastorius, 3; Babbitt, 5. Hit by pitcher—Babbitt, 1. Struck out—Pastorius, 4; Babbitt, 6.

BARRACKS BEAT THE COLLEGE.

The match between Victoria College and the Barracks XI yesterday at Macaulay Point resulted in an easy victory for the Barracks, while affording good practice for both sides. For the Barracks, Barraclough, Spong and Kelly showed up in good batting for, compiling respectively 37, 38 and 26, while Capt. Barnes and Barraclough divided the bowling honors. The College in batting showed decided want of practice, Goward with 31 runs being the only one to reach double figures. W. R. Wilson bowled well for the College, taking six wickets. The score:

THE PROHIBITION CASE.

Authority of the Dominion to Regulate the Liquor Traffic Defined by H. M. Privy Council.

LONDON, May 9.—Judgment has been rendered by the Imperial Privy Council on the Canadian prohibition case. Their Lordships answered the questions separately. They are of the opinion that the Ontario legislature had jurisdiction to enact section 18, subject to certain necessary qualifications. Its provisions are, or will become, inoperative in any district of the province which has already adopted or may adopt the second part of the Canada temperance act of 1876. The order of the Supreme Court of Canada is discharged without costs.

The judgment covers twenty-one printed pages and is of a highly technical character. It was read by Lord Watson, and deals chiefly with the seventh question submitted by the Governor-General which, after an exhaustive review of the Canadian laws for the restriction of the liquor traffic, it answers in the affirmative. It is their lordships' opinion that the enactment of the Imperial act of 1876 would indicate that the exercise of legislative power by the parliament of Canada is strictly confined to matters unquestionably Canadian in interest and importance. Any other construction, they add, is not only contrary to the intention of the act, but would practically destroy autonomy of the provinces, if it was once conceded that parliament had authority to make laws applicable to the whole Dominion in relation to matters which, in each province, are of local interest. Upon the assumption that they also concern the peace, order and good government of the Dominion, they are hardly subject to be enumerated in section 92.

Their lordships are likewise of opinion that section 92 does not give to the provincial legislatures the right to make laws for the abolition of the liquor traffic. It assigns to them the saloon, tavern and other licenses, and the imposition of reasonable conditions upon licenses in return for their legislation, but it cannot be construed as authorizing the abolition of sources of revenue. The parliament of Canada has not the power to pass a prohibitory law for the province of Ontario. Therefore it has no authority to repeal an act whereof a portion is limited to the province. In like manner, the express repeal of the Canada temperance act of 1876 in the case of liquor prohibitions adopted by any municipality of the province of Ontario, under sanction of the provincial legislature, does not appear to be within the authority of the Dominion parliament."

Questions 1, 2, 5 and 6 are sufficiently answered to the opinion of their lordships on question seven. In answer to question three their lordships express the opinion that the provincial legislature would have jurisdiction if it is shown that the manufacture is carried on under such circumstances as made prohibition merely a local matter in the province. Their lordships answer question four in the negative.

SIR OLIVER MOWAT

Will Do His Best for His Friends at Ottawa and Hang on to His Old Job.

[From the Hamilton Spectator.]

The Toronto Globe editorially announces that "Sir Oliver Mowat has joined forces with Mr. Laurier," and that "this announcement, made more explicitly in the letter from Sir Oliver to the Liberal leader, which appears in another column, will send a thrill of intense enthusiasm through the Liberals of Canada." It strikes us that when the Liberals of Canada turn to the other column and read Sir Oliver's letter, the thrill of enthusiasm will degenerate into a thrill of disappointment. Sir Oliver Mowat has always done his best to aid the Grits during Dominion election campaigns. He has always thrown the entire strength of the Ontario machine into the contest. The people of Hamilton know how Ontario officeholders have taken the stump in behalf of the Grit candidates; how the liquor license machine has been manipulated in the interest of the Grit party; how the town has been overrun by government employes from Toronto, under the distinguished leadership of Washee Clark; how the patronage of the Ontario government has been used to make votes for the Grit candidates; how Ontario ministers have pulled strings and conspired with the local managers; how personators have been imported by Ontario government officials—they know, in fact, that Sir Oliver has used the full strength of his position in the interest of the Grit candidates, and what is true of Hamilton is true of the rest of the province. What more can Sir Oliver do for his party? What more does he promise to do?

It is a significant fact that Sir Oliver refuses to resign his premiership and go to the country for election to the Dominion parliament, and therein the astute little humbug is wise, except that in providing against the possibility of personal defeat he acknowledges the weakness of his party; he shows plainly that he has no confidence in Mr. Laurier's chances for success. "If you succeed," says Sir Oliver to Mr. Laurier, "you may put me into the Senate and give me a portfolio; if you don't succeed I'll remain where I am, the premier of Ontario." Let us suppose for a minute that Laurier will succeed. What will then happen? Will Sir Oliver keep his implied promise, forsake the high office of premier of the first province of the Dominion, and become a nonentity among the other "old ladies" of the senate; wasting the sweetness of his wide smile upon the desert air of the musty old chamber; unseen by the public, unheard of by the people—almost as entirely out of public life as if he were in his grave? Not at all likely. The old man's ambition would never allow him to do that; and he can easily find some excuse for hanging on to the premiership of Ontario. Indeed, he will not have to go far for an excuse; for the provincial elections will soon be on, and the wicked partners of the local government, without the leavening influence of Sir Oliver's sanctity, would be easy marks for the Conservatives.

A careful reading of Sir Oliver's letter to Mr. Laurier will show that we have interpreted correctly, and that the whole thing is a transparent "bluff" to assist Mr. Laurier without endangering Sir Oliver's present position, and without making the defeat of the Ontario government at the next election an absolute certainty. Sir Oliver is not "ripe" for the change he hypocritically pretends that he will make; his "serious consideration" will keep him exactly where he is.

There is, therefore, nothing new in the situation. Sir Oliver will go on, as he always has done, doing his best for his friends at Ottawa, and hanging on to the Ontario job so long as the good Lord gives him health and strength to do so.

ITALY IN AFRICA.

Evacuation of Abyssinia Impossible—Hopes for an Arrangement With Menelek.

ROME, May 9.—The Marquis di Rudini, the Premier, in a speech in the chamber to-day endorsed the declarations of General Rictotti, the minister of war and the Duke of Sermonita, minister of foreign affairs, when he stated that General Baratieri must be tried before a military tribunal and deprecated the charges made in the chamber against the Crispi cabinet as being likely to prolong party strife. He said that the publication in the green book relative to Africa had rendered an inquiry unnecessary. The Italian blood already shed, he urged, rendered evacuation impossible. He asserted, however, that he would not accept any motion in favor of the expansion of Italy's sphere of action in Africa. He was opposed to the occupation of Adigrat. The Adowa line, as a boundary, he regarded as inevitably leading to a prolonged war. In conclusion, he explained that if the Italian troops did not proceed beyond the Mareb and Beisa line, all cause for conflict between Italy and the Abyssinian king, Menelek, would be removed.

Negotiations are in progress between Japan and Russia looking to joint action in Korea. The chief points under discussion are the return of the King to the palace from the Russian embassy; Japan to have the disposal of the troops about the palace and the placing of the Korean telegraph system in the hands of the Japanese.

To let the merry Bikers know that our big stock of Sweaters "has came," (as they say in San Francisco.)

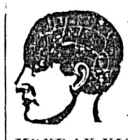

There are six hundred of them—just think of it—about enough to supply every bicycle rider in town, and we intend to supply every rider, if crisp, new goods and away-down prices are any inducement. There are Sweaters for the fat, the lean, the long, the short, for both boys and men. We have them in all colors and patterns, with rolling or long collars.

Through a mistake in the order, this immense lot was shipped us, and the wholesaler gave them at a great reduction. This is why we will slaughter them and sell them as Sweaters were never before sold in Victoria. Drop in and have a look at the Sweaters; it's a pleasure to show our goods. Such a line of apparel for men who would be smartly and correctly dressed is not to be seen in Victoria outside of this store.
